This work depicts no real people, but many real routines and procedures at a typical Canadian group home for people with mental illness (mainly schizophrenia). I trust that some readers will be interested to know what these are, and what happens in these benighted satellites of our mental health-care system – Hell Houses....

WELCOME TO $CAMHospital

THIS WAY TO YOUR

MODEL SUITE